The image is a composite of a browser window and a screenshot of the Yahoo! Groups website. The browser window at the top shows the address bar with the URL 'http://groups.yahoo.com/'. Below the browser window, the Yahoo! Groups website is displayed. The page features a navigation bar with links for 'New User? Register', 'Sign In', and 'Help'. The main heading is 'YAHOO! GROUPS' with a search bar to its right. A large green banner below the header contains the text 'Find a group of people who share your passions.' and 'With millions of groups at your fingertips, it's easy to find the group that's best for you -- no matter your interest.' Below the banner is a search form with the text 'Find a Yahoo! Group' and a 'Search' button. A Netflix advertisement for 'SHUTTER ISLAND' is visible on the right side of the page. Three numbered callouts are overlaid on the image: 1. A blue circle with the number '1' and an arrow pointing to the browser address bar. 2. A blue circle with the number '2' and an arrow pointing to the search input field. 3. A blue circle with the number '3' and an arrow pointing to the 'Search' button.

Step 2. Message Delivery

Yahoo! Groups lets you choose how you stay in touch.

- Individual Email
The option to choose if you want to get each group message and special notice individually and immediately, as it is posted.
- Daily Digest
The option to choose if you want to see all messages but limit the amount of email you receive. We'll compile an email of up to 25 messages and send daily (special notices too!).
- Special Notices - Receive only important email notices from the group moderator.
- Web Only - Don't get notified of the latest happenings. Read messages only on the web.
